Appointment of a new Executive Vice-President at OGC

MONTREAL, March 5, 2009 – Olivier Du Paul, President of OGC Inc., is pleased to announce the appointment of Patrick Du Paul as Executive Vice-President. In his new role, Mr. Patrick Du Paul will be responsible for the company's operations and will participate in its strategic development as a member of the Board of Directors.

Patrick joined the company in 2007 with thirteen years of experience at international companies in the manufacturing and service sectors, such as General Electric (GE) and Thomas & Betts, for which he held a number of managerial positions. Patrick has a degree in industrial engineering from the Polytechnique Montréal as well as a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from Université de Sherbrooke.

"Throughout his career, Patrick has gained recognition for his leadership and visionary spirit. I am convinced that he will not only help our company execute our business strategies but also stimulate its development," stated Olivier Du Paul.

About OGC
